

Pete Oliver

Born and raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico, Pete is a 1982 Distinguished Military Graduate of The Citadel, The Military College of South Carolina. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree and Master Degree in Public Administration.

Pete retired as a Colonel from the US Army in 2009 after 27 years of service. Following his retirement from active duty, Pete served a year under a contract with the US State Department as the Engineer Advisor to the newly formed Government of South Sudan in Africa, at the time the newest country in the world. In 2012, Pete became a Senior Project Manager with E Source Companies LLC (former AAC Utility Partners) in Columbia, SC until his retirement in 2024.

Pete was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease on March 2024. His wife Mary Anne is a retired Family Nurse Practitioner and Pete's full-time caregiver. Pete is being treated at the MUSC Neurology Department, Movement Disorder Clinic. He appreciates his doctors at MUSC and feels that he is being cared for by an excellent team of doctors. Pete is also participating in a PD medical trial for a drug that will hopefully slow or even stop the PD progression.

Pete has been married for 43 years to the former Mary Anne Martin of Monticello, South Carolina and they have three sons: PJ, Ryan and Ben who is married to Yara and have a daughter, Madelyn.
